Full-Time Teaching-track Faculty
School of Fine and Performing Arts
Dance Department
Contemporary Forms of the African Diaspora—Technique and Creative Practice

Columbia College Chicago actively promotes diversity, equity, and inclusion as vitally important to its present and future success. These principles are essential to the educational experiences of our students, staff, and faculty.

The Dance Department of Columbia College Chicago seeks applicants for a full-time teaching-track faculty position in Contemporary Forms of the African Diaspora—Technique and Creative Practice, beginning August 2023.

Our new colleague will be an artist/educator whose creative research centers physical practice grounded in Afro-Diasporic aesthetics and techniques. Of particular relevance to our curriculum are research areas defined by their engagement with popular and vernacular dance forms, contemporary dance, West African, ballet, and Hip-Hop. Courses taught may include: movement practice according to expertise, Improvisation, Choreography, Pedagogy, and courses related to their research area. We are seeking a colleague who can contribute significantly to departmental discourse and practices specifically in relation to artistic inquiry, collaborative methods, and equity and inclusivity in our curriculum, policies and pedagogies.

In addition to expertise in their field, successful candidates must exhibit excellent teaching and scholarly credentials and be passionate about undergraduate and graduate education.

The Dance Department of Columbia College Chicago is home to approximately 110 majors pursuing a BA or BFA in Dance. We offer three minors—Dance, Arts in Health, and Hip-Hop Studies. The Dance Department is the city's leading presenter of contemporary dance, connecting students, the college, and the community to a diverse array of cutting-edge contemporary artists, choreography, and dance making practices through the Dance Presenting Series (DPS). The mission of the Dance Department is to develop critically conscious dance artists who are prepared to advance the field of dance through a multitude of career pathways and serve as agents of change in their communities. Our pluralistic curriculum focuses on Afro-Diasporic and European-derived forms and situates embodied training in conversation with theory, creative process, pedagogy, technology, and dance science applications.

The School of Fine and Performing Arts (SFPA) houses academic programs in visual arts, performing arts, business, and marketing. Home to more than 110 full-time faculty and over 3,300 students, the SFPA community is deeply committed to rigorous exploration of a wide range of artistic practices and economies, with strong focus on a diversity of contemporary styles and current industry trends. Across SFPA, we challenge the next generation of artists, scholars, managers, performers, designers, makers, and entrepreneurs to master the skills and interrogate the foundations of their creative disciplines; imagine new futures; and contribute to the vibrant arts communities of Chicago and beyond.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Teach at the undergraduate level in areas assigned by the Department Chair.
- Keep abreast of relevant technological innovations and collaborate across College units to integrate them seamlessly and in an ongoing manner into the classroom.
- Engage with the broader scholarly and professional communities.

- Supervise and advise and mentor students.
- Contribute to the development, planning and implementation of a high-quality curriculum.
- Commit to continuing professional development.
- Provide service to the college, profession and community.

All faculty members are expected to advance the College's DEI mission. For more information on the office of Academic Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion please visit: colum.edu/diversity.

Required Qualifications

- MFA, Doctorate or other terminal degree in Dance. Consideration will also be given to candidates with a post-secondary degree and a significant track record of professional accomplishments and experience.
- Prior teaching experience and demonstrated excellence in teaching technique/creative practice courses.
- Commitment to engaging with best practice initiatives in instruction and pedagogy, mentoring, curriculum design, and development.
- Commitment to advancing equity in dance and dance education, and to promoting diverse points of view through a global perspective.

Desired Qualifications

- Professional experience and undergraduate teaching experience are highly desirable.
- Experience with teaching using a learning management system for course content, assignments, grading, attendance, and student communication.
- A demonstrated secondary specialization in teaching pedagogy, somatics, dance science, dance and technology, dance studies, or curation.

Application

To apply for this position, submit the following materials online:

- A letter outlining the applicant's background, qualifications, and vision for the position.
- A curriculum vitae.
- A statement of teaching philosophy.
- A statement of scholarly or creative practice.
- An Inclusive Excellence Statement describing actions you have taken to support and advance diversity, equity, access and inclusion in service, teaching, or research/creative activity. Please be succinct with your response.
- Contact information for three references. References will not be contacted without prior consultation with the applicant.

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. For best consideration, please apply by December 19.

This job description is not designed to cover or contain a comprehensive listing of activities, duties, or responsibilities required of the employee and is subject to change based on the needs of the department and/or college.
