Job Description – Full-Time Practitioner-in-Residence
Theatre Department
Acting, with a specialization in Intimacy

Columbia College Chicago actively promotes diversity, equity, and inclusion as vitally important to its present and future success. These principles are essential to the educational experiences of our students, staff, and faculty.

The Theatre Department of Columbia College Chicago seeks applicants for a Practitioner in Residence position in acting with a specialization in Intimacy for academic year 2022-2023, beginning in August 2022. This is a one-year appointment with the possibility of renewal for one additional year.

The successful candidate will have significant experience in professional theatre as a director/acting coach. They will have the scholarly background to instruct students in the foundational knowledge and skills of the discipline while introducing them to a diverse repertoire of theatrical styles and genres. They will be familiar with acting techniques – creating character, telling story, objectives, obstacles, and tactics and have expertise working in collaboration with designers, directors, musical directors, and choreographers. Successful applicants will have expertise and experience in integrating inclusive policies and equitable practices into their work in the classroom as well as in productions. Additionally, they will have extensive training and significant professional experience in Intimacy Choreography for live performance, Intimacy Coordination for Film and TV, and consent and boundaries practice for classrooms, rehearsals, and performances. They will be comfortable addressing the intersections of ability, anti-racism principles, “mental health first aid” awareness and protocols, as well as gender fluidity and sex roles within the field of Theatre.

In addition to expertise in their field, successful candidates must exhibit excellent teaching and scholarly credentials, demonstrate the ability to foster a welcoming, equitable environment, and be passionate about undergraduate and graduate education.

The Theatre Department at Columbia College Chicago houses majors in Acting (BA and BFA), Musical Theatre (BA and BFA), Comedy Writing and Performance, Design and Technology, and concentrations in Directing, Playwriting, Stage Management and Theatre Studies. With over 800 students, the Theatre Department’s mission is to provide undergraduate students with a comprehensive education in the practices and processes of creating theatre and live performance. In addition to its majors, the department offers minors in Acting, Stage Combat, Theatre Directing, Playwriting, and Devising for Collaborative Performance. The department works actively to promote diversity, equity, and inclusion as vitally important to the making of theatre and the educational experiences of its students, and seeks to root out discrimination of all kinds in classes and productions.

The School of Fine and Performing Arts (SFPA) houses academic programs in visual arts, performing arts, and business, entrepreneurship, and marketing. Home to more than 110 full-time faculty and over 3,000 students, the SFPA community is deeply committed to rigorous exploration of a wide range of artistic practices and economies, within an inclusive curriculum characterized by a strong focus on a diversity of contemporary styles and current industry trends. Across SFPA, we challenge the next generation of artists, scholars, managers, performers, designers, makers, and entrepreneurs to master the skills and interrogate the foundations of their creative disciplines; imagine new futures; and contribute to the vibrant arts communities of Chicago and beyond.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Teach three courses per semester at the undergraduate and graduate level in Acting and Intimacy and other areas assigned by the Department Chair in consultation with the Acting Coordinator. Classes taught may include Foundations I and II, Scenes and Performance Analysis, Character and Ensemble, and Advanced Acting and Intimacy for the Stage.
- Choreograph and mentor student choreographers for Mainstage, New Stew, and Playwriting productions, Directing Projects and MFA performances.
- Generally advise and mentor students.
- Contribute to the development, planning and implementation of a high-quality, inclusive curriculum in the BA/BFA acting program and the department's graduate curriculum, consistent with the college's commitment to equity and social justice.
- Engage with the broader scholarly and professional communities.
- Commit to continuing professional development.
- Provide service to the college, profession, and community.
- Actively follow and promote Columbia College Chicago policies.

We seek individuals with a demonstrated ability to work with students from a wide range of social and cultural backgrounds, and whose creative, scholarly and/or professional work aligns with our commitment to dismantling systems of privilege and oppression. All faculty members are expected to advance the College's DEI mission. For more information on the office of Academic Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion please visit: colum.edu/diversity.
