School of Fine and Performing Arts
Theatre Department
Acting

Columbia College Chicago actively promotes diversity, equity, and inclusion as vitally important to its present and future success. These principles are essential to the educational experiences of our students, staff, and faculty.

The Theatre Department of Columbia College Chicago seeks applicants for a full-time tenure-track or tenured faculty position in acting beginning August 2020.

The Theatre Department offers majors in Acting (BA, BFA), Musical Theatre (BA, BFA), Comedy Writing and Performance (BA), Theatrical Design and Technology (BA), and Theatre (BA) with concentrations in Playwriting, Directing, or Stage Management. We are committed to developing future generations of theatre artists who are creative, compassionate, principled, and engaged. We are seeking a dynamic and experienced professional interested in joining our collaborative team. The successful candidate will be a skilled pedagogue with a professional background in performance, who is able to teach multiple levels and styles of acting. We are particularly interested in candidates who have an additional area of specialization that could include: Voice and Movement, Camera and New Media Work, Non-European Acting Techniques, or other areas unique to the applicant. In addition to expertise in their field, successful candidates will have a documented record of excellence in teaching, and be passionate about undergraduate and graduate education.

The School of Fine and Performing Arts (SFPA) houses academic programs in visual arts, performing arts, business, and marketing. Home to more than 110 full-time faculty and nearly 3,500 students, the SFPA community is deeply committed to rigorous exploration of a wide range of artistic practices and economies, with strong focus on a diversity of contemporary styles and current industry trends. Across SFPA, we challenge the next generation of artists, scholars, managers, performers, designers, makers, and entrepreneurs to master the skills and interrogate the foundations of their creative disciplines; imagine new futures; and contribute to the vibrant arts communities of Chicago and beyond.

Duties & Responsibilities

- Teach three courses per semester at the undergraduate and, as appropriate, at the graduate level in areas assigned by the Department Chair.
- Engage with the broader scholarly and professional communities.
- Advise and mentor acting students.
- Contribute to the development, planning and implementation of a high-quality, inclusive curriculum consistent with the Columbia College Chicago commitment to equity and social justice.
- Commit to continuing professional development.
- Provide service to the college, profession and community.
- Actively follow and promote Columbia College Chicago policies.
We seek individuals with a demonstrated ability to work with students from a wide range of social and cultural backgrounds, and whose creative, scholarly and/or professional work aligns with our commitment to dismantling systems of privilege and oppression. All faculty members are expected to advance the College’s DEI mission. For more information on the office of Academic Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion please visit: colum.edu/diversity.
